BRIAR RIDGE CLEANINGS

Rain in this locality is much needed.

Byron Mosely visited the Mc Mahen boys at Briar Ridge last week. The three went hunting and within less than a mile from the house killed sixteen squirrels.

Friday morning, October 11th, Mrs. O. DisMukes was out milking assisted by her husband. Suddenly he saw her fall to the ground with her pail of milk. He ran to her but found no sign of life. Hurrying to his phone he sent the signal of alarm over the wire. Our mail carrier passed. They saw her gasp once and the two men carried her into the house. Doctor Hoffman was summoned, neighbors flocked in, and everything that skill and kindness could suggest was done to restore her. But the Destroyer's grip was too strong. Total paralysis slowly set in and the following Wednesday morning she passed peacefully from her earthly labors into the rest beyond. May Bratton DisMukes was born in Tennessee, in November, 1848. She came to Missouri with her parents about 1878 and a few years afterward was married to Orville DisMukes. She leaves a husband, an aged father and three children. Two sons, and a daughter who was summoned from Texas but arrived too late to be recognized by her mother. Funeral services were held at Bethany Church, Thursday afternoon. The pastor, Rev. Mo Quie, spoke from the text, "Blessed Are the Dead That Die in the Lord," and its application to her Christian life and character was commented on by his audience.

Mr. McOain was very sick last Saturday but regained his usual health and strength in a few days and expects to go to Mokane this week.

Sec. 17, Twp. 48, Range 5 W. containing in all 425 acres of land in one tract and called the Sans Souci Stock Farm.

And is further ordered that said non-resident defendants be and appear at the next regular term of this Court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of Montgomery, Montgomery County, Missouri, on the Second Monday November, 1907, and on or before the first day of said term and answer or demur to plaintiff's said petition or the same will be taken and adjudged as confessed and judgment by default will be rendered against said defendants.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published in The Montgomery Tribune, a newspaper printed in the English Language and published in said Montgomery County, four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to appear at least fifteen days before the first day of said Term of Court.

Given under my hand this 4th day of September, A. D. 1907, in vacation, EVERETT BARTON, Clerk of Circuit Court.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Montgomery, ss.

I, Everett Barton, Clerk of the Circuit Court within and for said County and State, hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full and true copy of the original order of publication in the cause therein named as fully as the same appears of record in my office.

Witness my hand as Clerk and the seal of said Court, Done at office in the City of Montgomery, in said County, this 4th day of September, 1907.

EVERETT BARTON, Clerk of Circuit Court.
JOHN M. BARKER, Attorney for plaintiff.

Burning the Candle.

"So Parker shot himself, did he?" mused one of Marshal Field's wholesale salesmen. "Yes," answered the silk buyer, sadly. "What on earth did he do it for?" queried the salesman. "Oh, I don't know; he was hitting a pretty fast pace," answered the other. "Burning the candle at both ends, eh?" remarked the salesman. "Yes, I guess that's what you'd call it," admitted the buyer. For a few moments both men were silent, then the salesman looked up. "Funny, isn't it, that when a fellow burns his candle at both ends he never thinks of blowing out the candle; it's always his brains."

Not Appreciated.

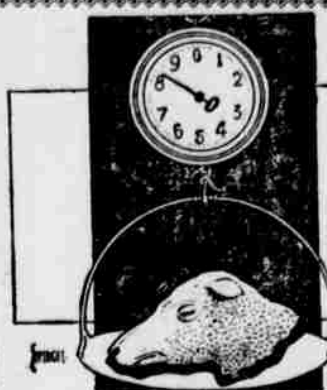

"Do you keep anything from your wife?" "Well," answered Mr. Meekton, "I try to tell her everything. But she finds my conversation so dull that she generally goes to sleep before I am half through."
